Terrence Gibson, Camp Director

2006-07 was Coach Gibson's first season as Ridge View High School's Girls' Basketball Team Coach. Coach Gibson played basketball for W.J. Keenan High School. Then, Coach Gibson went on to play basketball at Imperial Valley College where he was named Conference MVP, and he made the All Conference Team for two consecutive years. Also, Coach Gibson received a scholarship from Virginia Commonwealth University (VCU). While at VCU, Coach Gibson started as the off-guard; he set school records in steals and 3 point shooting. Once Coach Gibson finished at VCU he went on to play professional basketball in Georgia, Washington, Louisiana, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Florida, Iowa, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Dakota and Canada. After Coach Gibson's playing days were done, he started coaching in Georgia for a middle school and an alternative school. Presently, Coach Gibson has been coaching at Ridge View High School for the past four years. Coach Gibson has built a reputation for being fun loving, a strong leader, academically conscious, character building, and an inspiration for young people.
